

A message from our co-chairs

We are delighted to serve as the Co-Chairs for the 2025-2026 United Way Campaign. Over the years, our paths have crossed through various community events, and we are proud to share a deep commitment to fostering community engagement.

Robert is the managing editor of the Times-Republican and is on the boards of the Marshalltown Area Chamber of Commerce, the Iowa Newspaper Association, and the local film company Bella Luna Productions. Robert is also a part-time musician, both solo and with his band, Catfish Murphy.

Maria works as a Community Organizer for Iowa MMI, and volunteering is one of her greatest passions; actively involved with many committees & organizations, including, Diversity in Leadership, My Marshalltown Project, St. Francis Festival, and Cultural Festival. Maria is also an EGYM trainer at Marshalltown YMCA/YWCA.

Together, we share a deep love for Marshalltown and are passionate about seeing it thrive as a vibrant, welcoming community. The Marshalltown Area United Way has been instrumental in supporting local organizations that provide vital services. Your contributions play a key role, please join us in leading the efforts of raising $900,000

Impact Areas

COMMUNITY RESILIENCY

We lead efforts to build resilient communities that can adapt, respond, & recover from challenges. Through crisis response & disaster preparedness, we're creating stronger, more sustainable foundations for the future.

FINANCIAL SECURITY

We support providing every person, in our community, on a path toward financial empowerment. That starts with access to services, job training, leadership development, legal assistance and housing security programs.

HEALTHY COMMUNITY

We strive to make it easier for individuals to access nutritious foods & other basic necessities, along with mental health & abuse prevention services, grief support, disaster recovery, and skill building for those with disabilities to reach self-independence.

YOUTH OPPORTUNITY

We back programming that allows tomorrow's leaders to create stronger roots for success. With an approach to education that spans from cradle to career, ensuring every child gets a strong start in life, teenagers have the tools to learn and grow, & young adults thrive in the job market.
